FRENCH NATIONAL BAR COMMEMORATES 40TH ANNIVERSARY OF ABOLITION OF DEATH PENALTY

ROUND TABLES AT PANTHEON 9&16 OCT

Paris, Washington DC, 03.10.2021, 12:17 Time

USPA NEWS - This year we will celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the abolition of the death penalty. The legal profession will be at the heart of these celebrations, which will notably take place at the Panthéon (Paris) from October around a dedicated exhibition, organized around Robert Badinter. On this occasion, the National Bar Council, which wishes to show its support for the abolition of the universal death penalty, is fully mobilized by organizing various events to celebrate the work accomplished and continue efforts throughout the world. First, on October 9, 2021, at the Pantheon, the finals of two moot court competitions on the death penalty will be held, the first devoted to young lawyers, the second to student lawyers. Applications are open until September 20.

The celebration continues on Saturday, October 16 with a solemn ceremony given in honor of this 40th anniversary, from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m., with a large round table on the theme "Death penalty: 40 years later, the fight continues everywhere in the world ". This event will be marked by the testimonies of Joseph Fifame Djogbenou, former Minister of Justice of Benin, Cecile Coudriou, President of Amnesty International, but also by the pleadings of the lawyers of the Francophonie in favor of universal abolition. Jerome Gavaudan, President of the National Bar Council: "This anniversary of the abolition of the death penalty is an opportunity for us lawyers to recall the importance of justice and human rights. Thanks to the tremendous work of advocates for the Francophonie, associations and politicians, each year we are moving a little further towards universal abolition. It is our duty to organize these events both to remind the youngest of history, to transmit the values ??initiated by Robert Badinter, but also to remind everyone that the advances of the past must be continuously defended, relentlessly. "

The National Bar Council is organizing a solemn ceremony in honor of the 40th anniversary of the abolition of the death penalty which will take place at the Panthéon, place du Panthéon 75005 Paris, on Saturday, October 16 from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. This ceremony will be organized in the form of a large round table "

DEATH PENALTY: 40 YEARS LATER, THE FIGHT CONTINUES. EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD ", in the presence of lawyers from La Francophonie who are mobilizing for the universal abolition of the death penalty. They will propose an inventory of legislation and mobilizations.
